

ABSTRACT AMENDMENTS

Please amend the Abstract as follows:

-- A seal for a pulley on a roller bearing includes a sealing cap which covers the front face of the roller bearing and is connected to a hub for externally enclosing the roller bearing. On the opposite side, the roller bearing has a sealing plate, which is likewise fixed to the hub and on the inner side interacts with a cylindrical section of the fixed housing. --